ABOUT THE NATIONAL OUTSTANDING YOUNG FARMERS AWARDS PROGRAM

The National Outstanding Young Farmers (NOYF) Awards Program, founded in 1954 by the U.S. Junior Chamber, is the nation's oldest and most prestigious agricultural recognition program. Now administered by the Outstanding Farmers of America (OFA), it celebrates farmers' achievements, fosters urban-rural understanding, and highlights their vital role in the economy. The program is supported by the National Association of County Agricultural Agents (NACAA), the National Association of Conservation Districts (NACD), and has been sponsored by John Deere since 1976.
